JUST THINK 111 FIRST Call NHS 111 or visit www.111.nhs.uk

Available 24 hours a day. If you have an urgent health need, contact NHS 111 first. The NHS will help you right away and can book you in to be seen quickly and safely at the right service for you.

Using the right service when you feel unwell or need advice helps keep A&E free for those who really need it.

Your Urgent Treatment Centre

Based at the Millennium Centre. Treats minor injuries, illness and X-ray 365 days a year.

Open Monday - Saturday 7am - 10pm,
Sundays and Bank Holidays 9am - 10pm.
Christmas Day and New Year's Day 9am - 9pm.

Your A&E and 999

For life threatening illnesses and injuries ONLY such as choking, chest pain, blood loss and open fractures.

Your GP Practice

On Christmas Day, Boxing Day and bank holidays, please first contact your practice by phone for the out of hours service. Video and phone consultations are taking place – and if you need a face-to-face appointment they will arrange one for you.

If you are unsure if you need to see a GP, contact NHS 111 for help and advice.

Stock-up Your Medicine Cabinet

Treat common illnesses at home.

Always ensure you have a good supply of painkillers, anti-diarrhoea medicine, antihistamine and a first aid kit.

COVID-19

To help prevent the spread of coronavirus remember:

HANDS

10

If you have any coronavirus symptoms or test positive, or you are a close contact or someone who tests positive you must self-isolate for 10 days.

To book a test go online at: www.gov.uk/coronavirus or call 119.

Your Pharmacy

Pharmacies will be open as usual over the Christmas and New Year period with a number opening on Christmas Day, Boxing Day and New Year's Day – see the table above.
